

AT&T Contributes $25,000 American Red Cross Greater Inland Northwest Chapter to Aid Communities Impacted by Washington Wildfires

SEATTLE, WA., Sept. 11, 2020 – AT&T* will present a $25,000 contribution to the American Red Cross Greater Inland Northwest Chapter as part of its pledge to aid communities impacted by the historic Washington wildfires.

“In these times of great need, AT&T is proud to step up and support organizations that are dedicated to helping support our first responders and helping our friends and families as they get back on their feet after the devastation of these wildfires,” said Bob Bass, President-AT&T Washington.

AT&T has also activated its Text to Give feature for customers who can text WILDFIRES to 90999 to donate $10 to the American Red Cross to help those affected by the wildfires. ¹

During the wildfires in Washington, AT&T has supported customers, waiving overage charges on talk, text, and data usage by wireless customers in impacted areas, and providing call and message forwarding for our home and business phone customers.

AT&T works in close collaboration with Washington’s first responders to prepare for disasters and help the network be resilient and operational when disaster strikes. With FirstNet, AT&T is making public safety’s mission the priority. FirstNet is the only nationwide, high-speed broadband communications platform dedicated to and purpose-built specifically for America’s first responders and the extended public safety community. FirstNet stands at the ready to be there to support response and recovery, no matter the disaster or emergency.
