

Corey Anthony

Senior Vice President, Human Resources & Chief Diversity Officer, AT&T Services, Inc.

In his role as Senior Vice President – Human Resources & Chief Diversity Officer, Corey Anthony is responsible for identifying and developing leaders, aligning employees with the company's vision and priorities, overseeing business unit HR support, and employee engagement. He also leads AT&T's efforts to leverage its leadership in diversity and inclusion to drive innovation and growth – as well as the company's EEO and affirmative action policies. He was appointed to his current position in May 2017.

Corey previously led the Emerging Services and Operations Transformation organization, where he oversaw the company's global transformation to IP voice, security and cloud services. In addition, he led operations, planning and support for Technology Operations' field and center functions.

Corey is a results-oriented executive with a proven ability to simplify and improve experiences for business customers and consumers. That is the direct result of his strong commitment to the people with whom he works. A proven leader, he consistently builds high-performing, agile, engaged organizations and teams.

Corey was born and raised in Jewett, Texas. He joined Southwestern Bell in 1995 as a manager in the Special Services Center in Wichita, Kan. Throughout his career, he has held leadership roles across AT&T – in its Wireless, Marketing, Finance, Network Operations, Human Resources, and Global Customer Service organizations. These wide-ranging experiences have placed Corey at the forefront of the company's evolution from a regional telephone company to a global leader in entertainment, business, mobile and high-speed internet services.

Corey gives back to his community by serving on the boards of directors for Junior Achievement and Dallas CASA. He is a passionate advocate for diversity and inclusion. Corey co-founded a chapter of AT&T's African-American employee resource group, The NETwork – and today serves on the board for Asian Pacific Islanders for Professional and Community Advancement, OASIS and the company's millennial group, oxyGEN.

Corey earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a double major in finance and accounting from Texas A&M. He and his wife, Priscilla, live in Dallas with their children, Monte and Ryley.
