Festival-goers will get to experience the best of entertainment that AT&T has to offer, and take home some great memorabilia. Don't miss our Year of the Dog float at the Chinese New Year Parade on Feb. 24. For details on San Francisco Lunar New Year festivals, go to chineseparade.com.

And don't miss the AT&T parade float. We've invited special local talent Chef Brandon Jew, owner of the Michelin Star restaurant Mister Jiu's. He offers a contemporary approach to traditional techniques. AT&T recognizes those who are committed to bringing more to their communities, not only as entrepreneurs, but also as partners of change.

"It's great to be back and celebrating with the community at this Lunar New Year Festival," said Tim Youn, Senior Marketing Manager, AT&T. "AT&T is dedicated to supporting the diversity within our community and this cultural festival is one of many that AT&T has been a part of.
