

David R. McAtee II

Senior Executive Vice President and General Counsel | AT&T

Mr. McAtee is the General Counsel of AT&T. In that capacity, he is responsible for all legal matters at AT&T. He was appointed to his position in October 2015.

Mr. McAtee joined AT&T in January 2012 as Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel responsible for AT&T's commercial litigation and antitrust matters. Prior to joining AT&T, he was a partner of Haynes and Boone, LLP, an Am Law 100 firm based in Dallas, Texas, specializing in complex litigation matters, antitrust, and government investigations. Prior to joining Haynes and Boone, Mr. McAtee was Senior Law Clerk to United States District Judge Jerry Buchmeyer, then Chief Judge of the Northern District of Texas.

Mr. McAtee is a former Executive Committee Member of the State Bar of Texas, Chair of the Board of Editors of the Texas Bar Journal, and Chair of the Fellows of the Texas Bar Foundation. He has twice received a Presidential Citation by the State Bar of Texas for leadership in the bar and received a Leadership Award from TexasBarCLE for his contributions in support of continuing legal education.

Mr. McAtee graduated from Duke University in 1991 with honors and in 1994 from The University of Texas School of Law, where he was an Associate Editor of The Review of Litigation.
