Introducing AT&T's Most Affordable 5G Smartphone on the Most Reliable Network -- The AT&T RADIANT Max 5G for $89.99

ATLANTA – September 9, 2021 – AT&T PREPAID is bringing customers its most affordable 5G smartphone on the most reliable 5G network*. Starting on Friday, September 10th, new AT&T PREPAID customers can purchase the AT&T RADIANT Max 5G for $89.99 with an Unlimited Plan and auto pay, and existing customers can get it for $179.99.

The RADIANT Max 5G offers a suite of entertainment features at a great value. It comes in Electric Blue with a 6.82 inch scratch-resistant screen that lets you watch videos, surf the web, and check email in vibrant color.

Featuring five AI-enhanced cameras, the AT&T RADIANT Max 5G helps you create content like a pro with the 48MP main rear lens and 118 degree ultra-wide lens. The versatile camera system lets you capture pictures and videos in a variety of conditions with portrait, panorama, super-macro, and night modes. The portrait and beauty modes on the 13MP selfie camera help you look your best.

Along with the entertainment features, the AT&T RADIANT Max 5G comes with leading technology to keep you connected and productive. It comes with 64GB of internal memory, expandable by an additional 512GB with a microSD card. The AT&T RADIANT Max 5G also provides up to two full days of power with its 4,750mAh battery, so it keeps up with your busy schedule*. Charging is a breeze with fast-charging and wireless charging support. The phone's octa-core processor provides a quick and smooth user experience as you toggle between apps. Feel secure knowing that the RADIANT Max 5G includes fingerprint unlock, all the latest Android 11 security and privacy features, and is backed by AT&T's two-year warranty.

Customers can purchase the AT&T RADIANT Max 5G at www.att.com/radiantmax5g or an AT&T stores on September 10th.
